

PRINCIPLES

1. Always use the "Rule of the Square" to determine if your pawn can promote before the enemy king can catch it.
2. Identify and control key squares to enhance your pawn's promotion chances.
3. Bring your king closer to the pawn to support its advance.
4. Use opposition to restrict the movement of the enemy king.
5. Avoid pushing your pawn too early; ensure your king is in a favorable position first.
6. Understand how to promote doubled pawns effectively against a king.
7. In king and pawn versus king endgames, always aim to keep your king in front of the pawn.
8. Calculate potential pawn promotions carefully before making moves.
9. Use shouldering techniques to block the opposing king's path.
10. Familiarize yourself with basic winning and drawing techniques in pawn endgames.

SITUATION

This lesson focuses on the Rook vs. Knight ending, emphasizing the importance of keeping the knight close to the king. The position illustrates how the knight can be lost if separated from the king, and the lesson provides strategies for maintaining the knight's safety while restricting the opponent's rook.

FEN: 8/5k2/8/4P3/4K3/8/8/8 w - - 0 1

GOAL

White's goal is to keep the knight close to the king and avoid losing it, while Black aims to trap the knight and win the game.

STRATEGY

Keep the knight close to the king to avoid losing it. The lesson provides strategies for maintaining the knight's safety while restricting the opponent's rook.

MOVES

First, move your king to f6 to keep the knight close. If the black king moves to e7, you can advance the pawn. The most accurate move order would be: 1. Kf6 Ke8 2. Kg7! 1-0

HOW IT LINKS TO THE RULES

This lesson highlights the importance of keeping the knight close to the king and avoiding situations where the knight can be lost. It also discusses strategies for maintaining the knight's safety while restricting the opponent's rook.
