

PRINCIPLES

1. Always use the "Rule of the Square" to determine if your pawn can promote before the enemy king can catch it.
2. Identify and control key squares to enhance your pawn's promotion chances.
3. Bring your king closer to the pawn to support its advance.
4. Use opposition to restrict the movement of the enemy king.
5. Avoid pushing your pawn too early; ensure your king is in a favorable position first.
6. Understand how to promote doubled pawns effectively against a king.
7. In king and pawn versus king endgames, always aim to keep your king in front of the pawn.
8. Calculate potential pawn promotions carefully before making moves.
9. Use shouldering techniques to block the opposing king's path.
10. Familiarize yourself with basic winning and drawing techniques in pawn endgames.

SITUATION

In this lesson, we explore the Rook vs. Knight ending in the corner. The position illustrates how the knight's mobility is severely restricted when both pieces are in the corner, leading to a likely loss. The lesson emphasizes the importance of avoiding situations where the knight is trapped.

FEN: 8/5k2/8/4P3/4K3/8/8/8 w - - 0 1

GOAL

White seeks to restrict the black king's movement and promote the pawn, while Black aims to maintain a defensive position and prevent promotion.

STRATEGY

Restrict the black king's movement and promote the pawn while maintaining a defensive position.

The lesson emphasizes the importance of king positioning in pawn endgames.

MOVES

First, move your king to c6 to occupy one of the key squares. If the black king moves to e7, you can advance the pawn. The most accurate move order would be: 1. Kc6 Kd7 2. Kd6 1-0

HOW IT LINKS TO THE RULES

This lesson emphasizes the importance of king positioning in pawn endgames and how to restrict the opponent's king's movement while promoting the pawn.
